

“A National Level Talent Hunt”

On the occasion of Golden Jubilee celebrations of Shaikh Group of Institutions, Shaikh College of Engineering & Technology, Belagavi organized one day National Level Talent hunt on 3rd Nov 2017 . This event was conducted to showcase the hidden talent among the budding engineers of North Karnataka region , Maharashtra and Goa. Around hundred participants took part in the technical paper presentation and project exhibition.

Dr.V.A.Raikar, Vice chancellor of Sanjay Ghodawat Institutions, Kolhapur was a guest speaker and special invitee for the function. Er.Abu Shaikh managing Trustee PES&T, Dr.H.G.Shekharappa-Director, Dr. Mohan Vanaroti-Principal Dr. M J Attar Chief Coordinator, Dr K Ravi, were present on the occasion.

Addressing the gathering the chief guest Dr Raikar said that it is very much important to conduct these kind of events which bring out the hidden talent of the young engineers. He also added that India is the youngest country among the all the nations. He stressed on the strategy and culture of youth. "Indian education system has been a strong pillar in making Indian Engineers serve the entire world" said Dr. Raikar. Development of skills beyond academic curriculum and undertake rural development projects were the points on which the special invitee stressed on.