

Shaikh College of Engineering & Technology wins 2nd runner up place in Hackthon.

8th semester student Yaasar Shaikh and 4th semester student Kayum of department of Computer Science and Engineering bagged 2nd runner-up prize in Blockchain Hackthon organized by Deshpande Foundation's Sandbox Startups, Hubli on 2nd and 3rd Feb 2019. The National Level 24 hours Hackthon event included with 8 hours training by IBM and other tech experts with hands-on coding experience followed by 16 hours Hacking on Blockchain. Aim of the Hackthon is to build transparent tomorrow & develop the Social Impact Solutions, propelling India's true growth story, and sense the vibrant startup ecosystem and Solve real world problems.

Management of shaikh group of institutions, Director Dr. H. G. Shekharappa, Principal Dr. M. S. Sohani, HoD Prof Vishwanath Ghali, Dr. Shivaleela Arlimatti and staffs and Students of Shaikh college of Engineering and Technology Congratulated the winners.